

VITAE

JAMES JOSEPH GRAY

Education

Ph.D. Fordham University, 1967
Major: Clinical Psychology

Honors and Awards

ABPP Diplomate in Clinical Psychology awarded by the American Board of Professional Psychology

Experience

5/78-Present Professor, American University
9/64-9/66 Clinical Intern, Psychiatric Institute, New York.

Service to the University

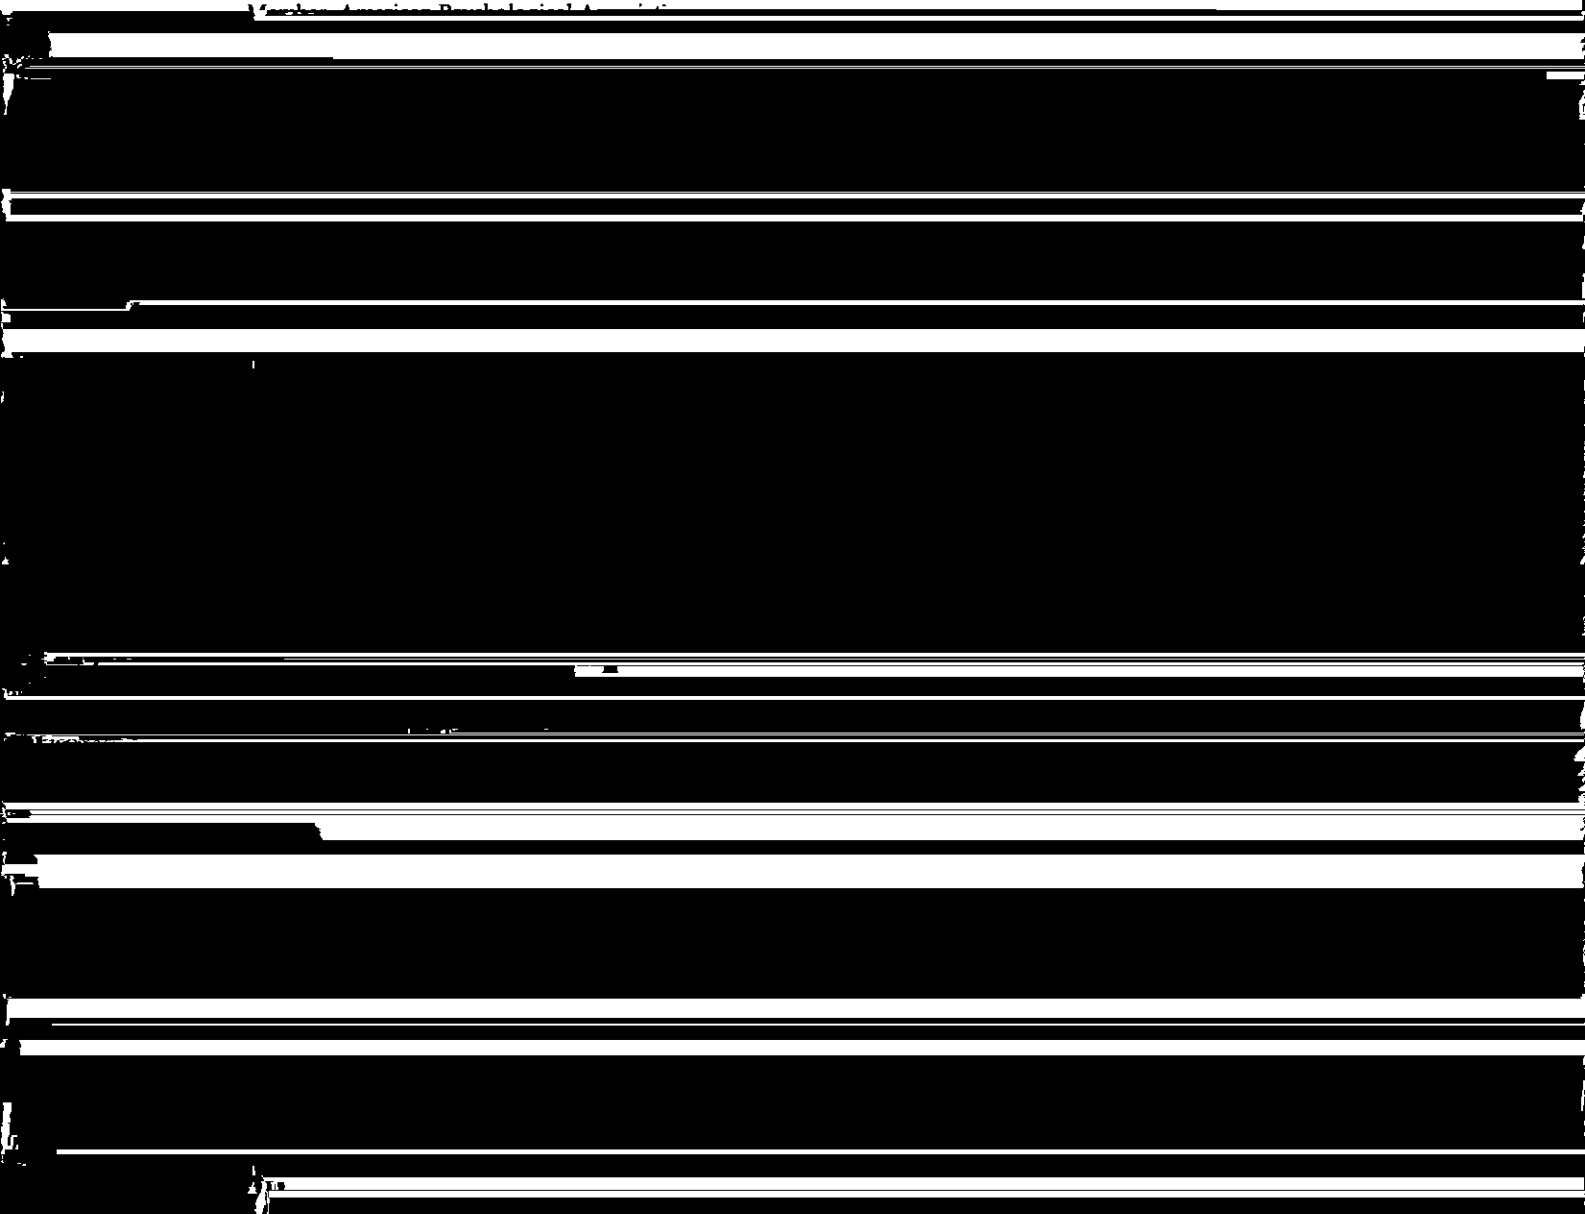

1985-Present Member of the University Institutional Review Board

Departmental Service

1971-2000 Director of Clinical Training, Department of Psychology,
The American University

Membership and Directory Listings

Licensed Psychologist in District of Columbia

Bulimia: Group Behavior Therapy with Exposure and Response Prevention (1990). Psychological Reports, Vol. 66, 667-674 (with C. Hoage).

Should trainees undergo psychotherapy. The Practitioner (1991). The Behavior Therapist (1991), 14, 1-14. See also: Psychological Reports, 66, 667-674.

